Be Our Guest

Chicago Bears players traded in their jerseys for aprons during the second annual Celebrity Waiter Night benefiting Living Hope Christian Ministries at the River North hot spot Steak 48. Guests enjoyed watching outside linebacker Sam Acho compete with his teammates for the title of Most Valuable Waiter as they balanced trays of bone-in rib-eyes and Chilean sea bass during the delicious meal. After dinner, artist Elliott From live-painted the perfect event souvenir: a Bears-centric painting that was auctioned off and will now hang proudly in one lucky fan's man cave. —Sarah Julien
